1.3.188
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, September 29, 2005 11pm.
www.unc.bz

1. You have My hand for the land, the land that is in My hand, that you have now. See it and claim not but surrender greater into Me to see Me greater unto thee. I love you.

2. Seest thou My movie tonight? My movie not but truth in. I love you. Bleep Me not out of our existence but continue to come into Me for My allness revealed. I love you.

3. You are only beginning. You are only beginning. You are only beginning to behold the righteousness planned for by Me. I love you. My Christ of Christs coming forth in Christood and making Christhood known and allowing not My body to sit complacent/stagnant on back rows and pews of largess-not, but littlehood; drinking milk that nourisheth not but stagnates and emaciates.

4. My body now destitute rushes with excitement at the thought of the new things I do, not; yea and behold, many do and elevate you I do now this night as you write, pen, My words hardly awake. I love you. My pen, My tablet, My word,s and love I do you, give you, and exchange you into at dawn, midnight not, before, and now is here. Amen.

5. I smile, I/we reconcile not like you thought but like I know.
The rest is in My hands.
The land is in My hands.
You are in My hands.
And I love you deeply.